Notice of the Request to Defederate

On 21st May 2018 the Governing Body of the BAWB Federation received a formal request for the defederation of West Burton CE Primary School. The request was compliant with the relevant regulations in that it was signed by the parents of at least one fifth of the pupils at West Burton CE Primary School.

In accordance with previous communications the Governing Board are undertaking a thorough review of the implications of defederation on all three schools in the Federation. The Governing Board intend to review the findings of this work on 19th June before taking a decision on the request to defederate on 11th July 2018.
