HISTORIC GEORGIAN TOWN OF RICHMOND, NORTH YORKSHIRE TO HOST FIFTH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS MARKET ON SUNDAY 8TH DECEMBER 2019

The people and businesses of the historic Georgian town of Richmond in North Yorkshire are hosting their fifth annual Christmas Market on Sunday 8th December 2019. The event, which is organised by volunteers from the local community, is free for all of the family to enjoy and will be open from 10:00hrs to 16:00hrs.

Building of the success and popularity of previous years, the 2019 Christmas Market will feature:
- Local produce & hand-crafted gifts
- Stage with live music
- Dog show with prizes
- Children's treasure trail
- Puppet show in the Town Hall
- Santa's grotto with gifts for children of all ages
- Food & drink from both local producers and around the world
- Indoor stalls featuring a broad range of gifts to fill any stocking
- Displays from the local branches of the British Army, North Yorkshire Police and Fire & Rescue Service
- A park & ride from Richmond School
- A wide range of local independent shops and traders

Richmond, North Yorkshire is a town of unique character and beauty which has changed little through the centuries. It has a growing number of high-quality independent retailers featuring a wide range of local, artisan produce as well as many pubs, hotels and restaurants. The historic Georgian town is renowned for its cobbled streets, Richmond Castle, the Georgian Theatre Royal, The Green Howard's museum and The Station (which now houses an art gallery, cinema, cafe and further artisan food producers). With its proximity to the most stunning scenery anywhere to be seen, Richmond remains one of the most beautiful places to visit in the country.

For more details visit our Facebook page at Richmond Town Christmas Market, website at www.richmondtownchristmasmarket.co.uk or email on hello@richmondtownchristmasmarket.co.uk

For more information contact:
Dennis Graves on 07950 211218